2 Q) Is there a pledge of citizenship that I must agree to become a part of this program?

2 Answer) Yes, the Twenty-first Century Scholars Pledge is as follows:

- I will graduate with an Indiana High School Diploma from a charter school, freeway school or other Indiana school recognized by the Indiana Department of Education.
- I will achieve a cumulative high school GPA of at least 2.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- I will not use illegal drugs or alcohol, or commit a crime.
- I will apply for admission to an eligible Indiana college, university or proprietary institution as a high school senior.
- I will apply on time for state and federal financial aid.

3Q) What do I get from this program?

3 Answer) You can get up to four years of undergraduate college tuition to attend an eligible Indiana public or private college, university or proprietary institution if you're a Twenty-first Century Scholar. The program also provides support so that you, your parents, and your school can work together to help you be successful as you continue your education.

4Q) Besides applying to the program, what do I need to do to be eligible to receive the scholarship?

4 Answer) You must do the following to be eligible to receive the scholarship:

- Fulfill the Scholars pledge to the State of Indiana.
- Meet the guidelines for Indiana student financial aid.
- Go to college within two years of graduating from high school.

5Q) Am I eligible to enroll in this program?

5 Answer) You qualify if you:

- Are a resident of Indiana as an applicant and as an award recipient (determined by the residency of your parent or legal guardian)
- Are a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen. For more information about citizenship qualifications, call 1-888-528-4719.
- Are enrolled in the sixth, seventh or eighth grade at a charter school, freeway school, or other Indiana school recognized by the Indiana Department of Education.
- Fulfill the Twenty-first Century Scholars Pledge.

8 Answer) All persons living in the same household as the applicant should be included in the household size on the application. Only people physically residing in the same household as the applicant can be included in the household size.

9Q) Whose income should I use on the application if I live half of the year with each of my parents?

9 Answer) If your parents have joint physical custody, then you should provide the household size and accompanying income for either of the two parents' households in which you reside.

10Q) One of my parent's pays child support for a child(ren) who does not live in my household, should we include this child(ren) in our household size?

10 Answer) No, the child receiving support is not living in your household and therefore should not be included in the household size on your application.

11Q) My 2009 household income exceeds the program guidelines, can we use our 2008 or estimated 2010 income on the application?

11 Answer) No, only 2009 income should be supplied on the application.

12Q) One of my parent's lost there job during 2009 or 2010, how should we complete the income section of this application?

12 Answer) Your parent(s) should include all income they earned during the 2009 year (as reported on their 2009 federal income tax return).

13 Q) Although my household income exceeds the program guidelines at this time, will you reevaluate my application at a later time if our income situation should change for the worse in the future?

13 Answer) No, applications are only considered when students are in the 6th, 7th, or 8th grade. The program will not reconsider applications due to changes in household income.

14Q) I qualify for free or reduced lunches through my school. Does this automatically make me eligible for the Twenty-first Century Scholars program?

14 Answer) No, all students must make application to the Twenty-first Century Scholars program and their household income must be within the program guidelines in order to be enrolled in the Twenty-first Century Scholars program. Likewise, it is not a requirement of the program that students must participate in the free and reduced lunch program in order to qualify to enroll in the Twenty-first Century Scholars program.

15Q) If my household income is greater than the program maximums, making me ineligible to enroll in the program while in the 6th grade, can I reapply to the program in the 7th and/or 8th grade?

15 Answer) Yes, you may apply to the Twenty-first Century Scholars program in 6th, 7th, and 8th grade. Your household income must be within the program guidelines for at least one year in order for you to be enrolled in the program.

16Q) I am currently home schooled, can I enroll in the program?

16 Answer) No, home schools are not recognized by the Indiana Department of Education and therefore are not considered eligible schools to enroll students into the Twenty-first Century Scholars Program.
